Last night, at our annual celebration dinner -- Madison Gives -- we made a major announcement: A $5 million gift from the Irwin A. and Robert D. Goodman Foundation to help endow the new Goodman Nonprofit Center at Madison Community Foundation.

The Bob and Irwin Goodman and the Goodman Foundation have touched nearly every corner of the Madison area with their generosity. This gift will provide valuable resources to the organizations they've supported, and many others, so they can grow and thrive.

We celebrated them and their generosity in this video.
